The Wild Hotel

MYKONOS

The Wild Hotel

A 40-key island hideaway built into a natural amphitheatre-like cliff top with views over the Aegean and private access to a secluded beach below. Wellness is an important part of the offering and The WILD's small but perfectly formed spa has been created for rejuvenation of mind, body and soul. A sea-facing gym is equipped with top-of-the-range fitness equipment and a team of wellness experts are on-hand to offer one-to-one or group sessions such as yoga, Pilates, tennis, martial arts and personal training. The hotel's two dining venues, TAVERNA and RAW embrace the abundance of fresh local produce and family-guarded traditional recipes that are available to them. For the wanting to explore the island further, tailor-made experiences are available including a visit to a local Myconian farm to learn the art of traditional Greek bread making, intimate picnics and visits to local fish markets to source the freshest produce on the island before meeting with chef to discuss how it should be served for lunch that day.
